Institute of Music for Children Wins The IKEA Life Improvement Challenge and Receives Complete Makeover

Elizabeth, NJ March 17, 2015 – The Institute of Music for Children in Elizabeth, NJ was awarded a complete IKEA makeover of two of its classroom spaces from the IKEA store (Elizabeth). The makeover will enable students to benefit from a beautiful and productive space to learn, as well as provide an opportunity to expand on-site fundraising and outreach events.

Executive Director, Alysia Souder, is thrilled about the makeover saying, “We are so grateful for this one of a kind opportunity from IKEA. We know that this transformation will make an enormous impact on our organization. In addition, the Improvement Challenge has generated a great deal of support and excitement from our members and our community. We all can’t wait to see the results.”

IKEA wants to play a part in creating a better life for the many people, as well as communities touched by IKEA business. While IKEA works on a global level to improve the lives of people in developing countries, IKEA also wants to be a good neighbor in its local communities. The IKEA Life Improvement Co-worker challenge is one way to make a difference closer to home.

How the IKEA Life Improvement Challenge Works:
Each year, IKEA receives many inspiring proposals from IKEA co-workers as candidates for the campaign. Then the IKEA steering committee - at each store - selects up to three organizations for co-workers and customers to vote online (this year's voting period was February 16 - March 2). The charitable organization, from each store market, with the highest number of online votes becomes the winner, and the 2nd and 3rd place winners receive IKEA gift cards.

IKEA US started the IKEA Life Improvement Challenge in 2011, and since then over 120 local charities have received over $1 million in IKEA products, design expertise, and manpower.
